General Terms and Conditions for Wildlife Coast Cruises

CHECK-IN AND BOARDING

We recommend arriving at your departure destination 30 minutes before your cruise departure time to allow for parking and unforeseen delays.

We encourage paperless check-in, you are not required to bring a print-out of your booking.

Boarding commences at our boat 15 minutes before the cruise departure time.

If you are running late or having issues finding our departure locations please contact our office on (03) 5952 9500 as cruises will depart on time

If you do miss your cruise departure time your ticket is forfeited, non-transferable and non-refundable.

WEATHER, NUMBERS & OPERATIONS

Cruise dates and times may be changed or cancelled due to weather and passenger numbers, please check our daily updates on our website to confirm your cruise.

In certain sea conditions, vessel motion may cause motion sickness, please take precautions.

We reserve the right to substitute equivalent advertised vessels due to operational requirements.

Guests are advised to limit non-essential valuables onboard. Wildlife Coast Cruises is not responsible for loss or damage to personal items during the cruise.

We reserve the right to cancel any cruise based on not meeting minimum numbers or weather conditions. You will be informed within a reasonable timeframe of this cancellation with the option of a transfer or refund.

Cruise routes may vary due to weather conditions or other circumstances.

To keep things safe and enjoyable for everyone, abusive or aggressive behaviour towards our crew or other guests won't be tolerated and may result in refusal of boarding or removal from the vessel without refund.

For international customers we are also available to message via WhatsApp and WeChat, and we recommend checking your email beforehand for important updates and communications.
