About

The guest protection plans offer discretionary protection (protection) issued by Turo Travels Mutual Limited (the Mutual). The plans are offered and distributed on behalf of the Mutual by Turo Australia Pty Ltd and Turo Inc., both authorised representatives of Picnic Licensing Pty Ltd (AFSL No 532540).

Discretionary risk protection is not insurance. The Board of the Mutual has absolute discretion to accept or reject a member's claim. The Board will exercise its discretion fairly and consistently, and with all due consideration to the merits and circumstances of each claim and the terms and conditions set out in the Guest PDS.

Protection plan cost

How much a protection plan costs depends on a variety of factors, including the plan you choose when booking a trip. Refer to the Guest Product Disclosure Statement (Guest PDS) for more information. The more a plan costs, the less you're responsible for paying in the event there's damage caused to the host's vehicle during your trip. We'll show the cost of the plan you choose as a separate line item on the checkout screen. For all plans, $2 of your trip fee goes toward your membership contribution for liability protection.

Tip: Consider purchasing protection for peace of mind — you're likely not covered by your personal insurance or credit card for trips booked on Turo.

Protection plan options for guests in Australia

All protection plans include protection for theft, loss, or damage to a host's vehicle, provided by Turo Travels Mutual. Protection from Turo Travels Mutual is secondary to any insurance coverage that you may have. Terms, conditions, and exclusions apply to all protection plans.

Deductible Waiver

You will not have to pay the deductible if:

- Loss of or Damage to the Host's Vehicle was caused by a third party and we agree that the third party was entirely at fault; and
